

ASEE Gulf-Southwest Section Annual Conference
April 4-6, 2018 Austin, Texas

CALL FOR PROFESSIONAL PAPERS

The American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE) Gulf-Southwest (GSW) Section Annual Conference will be held April 4-6, 2018. The conference will be hosted by the Cockrell School of Engineering at the University of Texas at Austin. Engineering and technology educators and industry professionals are invited to submit papers covering the general conference theme Engineering Education Research: Improving Engineering Teaching and Learning. Topical papers are solicited, but not limited to the following topics:

- Engineering Education Research
- Active, Experiential, and Collaborative Learning
- Student Outcomes Assessment and Evaluation
- Instilling Professional Skills in Engineering Students
- Engineering Diversity and Inclusiveness
- Design Studios, Maker Shops, and Collaboratory Spaces
- Using New Technologies in the Classroom

The organizing committee invites potential authors to submit abstracts for original contributions that align with the general theme of the conference. Authors should submit abstracts in PDF format including a descriptive title, names and affiliations of all the authors, and up to a 300-word description of the material to be presented at the conference. Upload the PDF abstract at the conference website noted below. By submitting a paper, and upon its acceptance, one of the authors is committed to attending and providing an oral presentation of their work at the conference.

CALL FOR STUDENT POSTERS

A special feature of the 2018 ASEE GSW meeting will be a student poster competition. The organizing committee invites students, both undergraduate and graduate, to submit a 300-word description of a proposed poster. The poster could pertain to a class project, a special laboratory set-up, a service learning experience, a K-12 STEM outreach, or undergraduate and graduate research projects. The PDF poster description should be uploaded at the conference website noted below. By submitting a poster, and upon its acceptance, the student is committed to attending the conference and providing an oral description of the poster during the poster competition.

Submit Paper Abstracts and Poster Descriptions by visiting:

<http://www.aseegsw18.com/>

Key Dates

October 15, 2017

Abstracts/Descriptions for Papers/Posters Due

November 10, 2017

Acceptance Notification*

January 15, 2018

Draft Papers/Posters Due

February 10, 2018

Paper/Poster Reviews
Returned to Authors

March 15, 2018

Final Papers/Posters Due

*Note: Templates for both Papers and Posters will be distributed to authors at the time of acceptance.

The conference proceedings will be distributed in electronic form, and certificates will be given for the “Best Professional Paper,” “Best Graduate Student Poster,” and “Best Undergraduate Student Poster”.

For more information contact:

rbarr@mail.utexas.edu